

Coming this week

Sunday November 10th

3rd Sunday before Advent

Acts of Remembrance

Remembrance Sunday Services

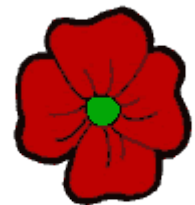

10th November

10.30am at St. Philleigh

10.45 am at St. Gerrans

Messy Church

Sunday 10th November at 4pm

This month finding out why we wear poppies

Messy Church welcomes children of all ages but is especially designed for children up to the age of 10 with their carers. It is very informal and begins with craft and conversation and concludes with a story and prayers.

We are maintaining close links with our local school.

Messy Church Club is a regular, popular event in school. Children often visit the church to research subjects on the school curriculum.

We are also sharing some special events with them this term.

11th November at 11am the school will be coming for a short service of remembrance. Everyone welcome

Collections for Refugees have restarted. The next collection will leave our sister church, St Philleigh, on Mon 11th 10-12 and Tues 12th 2-4pm You can leave goods for refugees at St Gerrans at any time. Please mark the bags 'refugees'.

Café Roseland

Nov 13th

Tea, cake lots of chat and a wide range of activities

Portscatho Memorial Hall 2pm till 4pm

Everyone welcome

Thursday 14th
10.00 am
Holy Communion or Morning Prayer
St Gerrans

Sunday, November 17
2nd Sunday before Advent

10.00 am
Holy Communion or Matins
St Gerrans

A Call to Worship at ST PHILLEIGH- The Calling is an opportunity to get together and worship in an informal contemporary style. Everyone is welcome to The Calling at St Philleigh on Sunday 17th November at 6pm.